NATIONAL DORSET SALE A SUCCESS AT THE 50th ANNIVERSARY OHIO SALE

Champion Polled Ram - Fall Yearling Ram
Reynolds Stock Farm, Aumsville, OR
Sold to Larry D. Inbody & Family, Jenera, OH

The 2010 National Dorset Sale was held in conjunction with the 50th Anniversary Ohio Dorset Sale held in Eaton, OH on March 19-20, 2010. Attendance was great along with the enthusiasm displayed by the Dorset breeders. The Horned Dorsets had another excellent sale with a strong $638.46 average. The Polled Dorset average was down from last year but numbers were up and the quality of the sheep, especially the yearling ewes was unlike any other sale before.

Being the National Sale, things got started on Thursday with the breed type inspections. A big thank-you to Mike Crowder and Sam Wiford for serving as the inspectors this year. I would also like to thank the breeders for their cooperativeness during the inspection process. There were no disqualifications and only a slight amount of serious defects were noted mostly in the mouth and hoof color areas.

On Friday, judge Brad Payne, sorted through an excellent set of sheep. The Grand Champions are shown on this cover page. Congratulations to all the consignors on bringing an excellent set of Dorsets to the National Sale! Brad had several tough decisions to make along the way while setting up a sale order for Saturday.

Friday night the Ohio Dorset Association hosted a BBQ dinner in the Bruner sale arena with the CDC Annual Membership meeting following. The complete meeting minutes are in this newsletter and many awards and presentations were made. Tom Diel, retiring Great Plains two-term director and past

Before the sale on Saturday, several presentations were made. The Ohio Dorset Association presented their 2010 scholarships to Jenna Davis, Kayla Gerfen, Kelsey Saylor and Kara McCarthy. 2009 Ohio Dorset Queen Kayla Gerfen crowned the newly selected 2010 Ohio Dorset Queen Kelsey Saylor. ed to Superior Farms, Yukon, OK. Congratulations to these two farms on this special award!

The sale was another strong sale at Ohio. The complete sales results appear on pages 22-27 of this newsletter. The Horned Dorset had a sale average of $638.46 on 65 head sold posting a new high gross for their sale. The record ewe price of $3,000 was tied by a fall ewe lamb bought by Christina Shotts, Quincy OH from Lance Thompson, Carrollton, OH. The yearling ewe classes posted very high averages of over $800. There were 27 horned ewe lambs nominated for the futurity program and 14 of those were tattooed by their new junior owners for participation in the program.

The Polled Dorsets did have a decrease in sale average but still tied last year's sales gross. 225 head of Polled Dorsets grossed $194,700.00 for a strong $865.33 average. The quality brought out was exceptional once again and probably the best set of yearling ewes put together at a sale in recent memory. Of the 76 Polled ewe lambs that were nominated for the futurity program 31 of them were tattooed by their new owners. Another great start for the Dorset Ewe Lamb Futurity program!

All in all it was a very successful event for the Dorset breed and a great start to 2010!

2010 CDC ANNUAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING MINUTES

The meeting was called to order at 3:16 PM on March 18, 2010 by President Mike Galleher. Directors Larry Hunter, Tom Diel, Melanie Barkley, and Hoop Peterson were in attendance. Western Director John Monahan was on speaker phone. Director-elects for Great Plains Region: Casey Sidwell and Western Region: Johnnie Johnson, and CDC Exec. Sec./Treas. Deb Hopkins were also present.

- Secretary Minutes: Deb Hopkins presented in writing the minutes from the 2009 CDC Fall-Teleconference Meeting held December 10, 2009. Melanie Barkley moved to accept the minutes as written. Tom Diel seconded. Motion passed.

-Treasurer's Report: Deb Hopkins presented the financial report for the fiscal 2009-2010 year to date as of March 4, 2010. Total income is $28,813.05, total expenses is $54,031.30 for a current net cash loss of $25,218.25. Account balances - Checking Account: $1,970.69; Savings Account: $25.00; CD: $24,859.74; Money Market: $12,067.67; Junior Association $9,216.53 for total cash assets of $48,139.63. Tom Diel moved to accept the treasurer's report. Hoop Peterson seconded. Motion passed. Deb Hopkins also presented a proposed budget for 2010-2011 for the board to review as it goes through the meeting. Deb Hopkins also presented the accountants annual report for the 2008-2009 fiscal year for the director's records. It was noted that the CDC lost $409.90 in cash flow last year.

-CDC Stats: Deb Hopkins presented the 2009-2010 statistics to date. As of February 28, 2010, 1417 head have been registered and 734 head have been transferred. The registrations are down 486 head from the same period last year and the transfers are down 171 head from the same period last year.

-Correspondence: Two letters from Bruce Ankeny and Kathy Soder were presented to the board for their information.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

-Dorset Futurity: Melanie Barkley and Hoop Peterson didn't have anything new to report but did present the 2010 Futurity Program Budget. Deb will get the information on the Ohio Sale nominations to Hoop for reporting at Friday's Annual Meeting.

-Breed Standard: It was reported that the breed inspections at Ohio were going along smoothly though some hoof and mouth color was found. Tom Diel moved to accept Evan Snyder to the Certified Judges List. Larry Hunter seconded. Motion carried. Melanie Barkley reported on the development of the breed standard educational manual. More pictures are needed of both good and bad traits. They are working on the project and are requesting breeders to send pictures in. A video/power point presentation was also discussed and the board would like to work on that after the manual is completed and have it available on the CDC website. The results of the breeders survey was discussed and because of the low number of responses the board was not confident in the data received to make any major decisions. The board would like to attempt another survey in the future to keep a pulse on breed issues.

- Production Dorset Committee: Melanie Barkley reported on the recent telephone conference they had. They requested that production data be put on the registry certificates to encourage performance data as a selection tool. Perhaps even have a performance division at the national sale. Since the CDC is working on developing a registry program now would be the time to incorporate such data. Tom Diel moved to incorporate into the computer registry program performance data to be put onto registration papers through the Lamb Plan program. Melanie Barkley seconded. Motion passed. Melanie will meet with the committee to come up with what kind of performance data they would like to appear on the registration certificates and how that data will be generated to be put on the certificates.

-Dorset Breeder Excellence Program: Mike Galleher reported there were no applicants for 2009 but the board would like to continue with this worthwhile program for 2010 and to encourage Dorset breeders to apply for the awards.

-Newsletter and Website: Deb Hopkins reported that the 2010 Winter newsletter had great advertising support and it netted a small income of $216.76. The spring/summer newsletter will be out before Sedalia. The website seems to be going well also. Melanie Barkley moved that pay pal be set-up for Dorset online registration for an additional cost. Tom Diel seconded motion carried. Deb reported that she has started up a CDC fan page on Facebook to get out quick announcements and to communicate more with the younger breeders though a lot of older folks are on Facebook also.

-All-American Junior Show: Deb Hopkins reported that the 2010 All-American Junior Show will be July 1-4, 2010 at the Michigan State University,

East Lansing, MI. The Dorset exhibitors and their families will once again have a lunch on Saturday sponsored by the Junior Dorset Association. Jeremy Etzler and Jacob Reister will be judging. The Michigan folks are doing a lot of extra food activities and are planning a tour of the MSU Campus. Deb would also like to thank Riverwood Farms and Cassell Horned Dorsets for donating ewe lambs this year for the show. A class sponsorship list will be passed around tomorrow to get additional sponsors for the show. The 2011 show will be in Delaware.

-National Junior Association: The junior association is planning on having an informal meeting at the All-American and their Annual Meeting in Louisville in November. They would also like to do some extra fundraising to help out the scholarship fund and are looking for ideas.

OLD BUSINESS:

-Ideal Statue: John Monahan has spoken with Carol Herdin and reported that a minimum of 25 statues would be cast for $1500, then after that cost would be $60 for each statue. 25% of the cast would need to be put down. Melanie Barkley moved to do a Polled Dorset Ewe with the fore mentioned stipulations. John Monahan seconded. Motion carried. Pictures will need to be submitted to her and someone to work with her in the development of the statue.

-Dorset Wether Registration: Larry Hunter moved to remove the motion that "Dorset wethers will be required to be registered at CDC sponsored events." from the table. Hoop Peterson seconded. Motion carried. After much discussion the motion passed 3 to 2 and the policy will be started in 2011.

-Computer Registry Program: Deb Hopkins reported that Frank Tiffany has a program to demonstrate to the board tomorrow. Cost will be $5,000 initial fee and the additional cost for support and updates. After the board meets with Frank on Friday action will be taken at the reconvening of the board after the annual meeting.

-Redistricting of CDC: After discussion no action was taken at this time.

NEW BUSINESS:

-2010 NAILE National Dorset Shows:

Deb Hopkins reported that the judge names were submitted to NAILE in the following order: Polled: 1st-Steve Taylor, 2nd-Steve Myers, 3rd-Mark Chapman; Horned: 1st-Billy Wade, 2nd-Dick Kuzemchak, 3rd-Tim Fleener. There was discussion at the NAILE sheep committee meeting once again on how to shorten the Junior Show to get the kids out earlier on Sunday night. Options are being looked into.

-2011 CDC Director Elections: The Eastern and North Central will be electing directors next winter. Melanie Barkley and Larry Hunter will both be retiring from the board as they have served their second term. Nominating committees will need to be made known to the office for announcement in the 2010 fall newsletter.

*Great Lakes – Kentucky State Fair in August

*New England - Northeast Youth Sheep Show in July

*North Central – Illinois State Fair in Aug.

*West – California State Fair in July

*East – possibility of being held in conjunction with All American in Delaware

*Great Plains – unknown at this time

-2011 Annual Meeting & National Sale:

After much discussion on the Illinois Dorset Sale being a possibility, and since the board would like to be guaranteed an April date for the sale at a location other than the Champaign facility, which could not be presented at this time, the board voted to have the 2011 National Sale at the Midwest Stud Ram Sale. The CDC board will entertain the invitation from New England and Illinois for the 2012 National Sale at a later date.

-Election of 2010-2011 Officers: Melanie Barkley moved Mike Galleher as President. Larry Hunter seconded. Motion carried. John Monahan moved Melanie Barkley as Vice President. Larry Hunter seconded. Motion carried.

-Budget: Melanie Barkley moved to accept the 2010-2011 Budget with corrections as presented in writing. Larry Hunter seconded. Motion carried.

Tom Diel wished the CDC and board well in the future. Mike Galleher thanked both Tom Diel and John Monahan for their service to the CDC Board of directors.

Larry Hunter moved to recess the meeting and reconvene after the annual meeting. Hoop Peterson seconded. Motion carried. Meeting recessed at 7:20 PM.

Meeting reconvened at 7:46 PM Friday, March 19, 2010. Larry Hunter moved that the CDC purchase and implement the computer registry program Frank Tiffany has developed for $5000. Melanie Barkley seconded the motion, Motion carried. More discussion on the Ideal Statue development as there was some confusion on how much financial commitment would be required upfront. Deb Hopkins will contact the Southdown Association to find out details before we proceed.

Larry Hunter moved to adjourn the meeting. Tom Diel seconded. Motion carried. Meeting was adjourned at 7:55 PM.

*Respectively submitted,

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

-Futurity: Hoop Peterson reported that 26 Horned ewe lambs and 76 Polled ewe lambs have been nominated at the National Sale and thanked the group nominators of Cassell Horned Dorsets, Superior Farms, Riverwood Farms and Olivia Waggoner for their support. He reminded junior owners to get their yearling ewes re-nominated for the yearling ewe futurity by May 1st. The committee is also looking into the possibility of doing a breeder ewe lamb futurity for purchases off the farm directly and would like member input.

-Breed Standard Education/Certified Judges List: Tom Diel announced that Evan Snyder had been added to the certified judges list and for members to nominate judges for the list. Melanie Barkley spoke on the development of the breed standard education manual that the committee has been working on. She requested that if breeders had any photos of good and bad traits to please submit them to her for the manual.

-Production Dorset Committee: Melanie Barkley also reported that they had a teleconference meeting in January. They are promoting the possibility of getting performance data added to registration certificates and felt with the development of the new computer registry program that now would be the time. She also announced that NSIP is incorporating its data into Lamb Plan as it has additional features and a quicker turn around time of data produced.

-National Junior Dorset Association: Junior Association President Troy Longenecker reported that the junior association is planning a BBQ and informal meeting at the All-American in July. He encouraged junior exhibitors to participate in the All-American and the regional junior shows coming up this summer and early fall. He also encouraged junior members to participate in the futurity ewe programs and for the older juniors to apply for the 2010 scholarship.

-Newsletter and Website: Deb Hopkins reported that the 2010 Winter newsletter had great advertising support and it netted a small income of $216.76. The spring/summer newsletter will be out before Sedalia. The website seems to be going well also. Deb reported that she has started up a CDC fan page on Facebook to get out quick announcements and to communicate more with the younger breeders though a lot of more mature folks are on Facebook also.

-All-American Junior Show: Deb Hopkins reported that the 2010 All-American Junior Show will be July 2-4, 2010 at the Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI. Jeremy Etzler and Jacob Reister will be judging. The Michigan folks are doing a lot of extra food activities and are planning a tour of the MSU Campus. Deb would also like to thank Riverwood Farms and Cassell Horned Dorsets for donating ewe lambs this year for the show. A class sponsorship list has been passed around and there are still a few spots that need filling in.

OLD BUSINESS: None brought up.

NEW BUSINESS:

-2010 NAILE National Dorset Shows:

Deb Hopkins reported that the judge names were submitted to NAILE in the following order: Polled: 1st-Steve Taylor, 2nd-Steve Myers, 3rd-Mark Chapman; Horned: 1st-Billy wade, 2nd-Dick Kuzemchak, 3rd-Tim Fleener. The Horned Dorset will show first followed by the Horned Dorsets. The show should be early in the week.

-National Sale Rotation: Larry Hunter reported that the 2011 National Dorset Sale, for both Polled and Horned Dorsets will be at the Midwest Stud Ram Sale the last week in June.

-Board Meeting Announcements: President Mike Galleher announced the CDC will require Dorset wethers to be registered at CDC sponsored events starting in 2011. The CDC is also pursuing the development of an ideal Polled Dorset Ewe statue. The Dorset Breeder Excellence program had no entries for 2009 and strongly encouraged breeders to participate on 2010. The entry deadline will be Dec. 31, 2010. Mike also reported that the CDC is developing their own registry program thanks to Frank Tiffany and it will be put into operations this fall that will also feature performance data. The 2009 membership surveys have been reviewed. Unfortunately due to the small number of surveys returned no definite trends could be determined but the opinions submitted were greatly appreciated. The 2010-2011 Officers elected were: President Mike Galleher and Vice President Melanie Barkley.

-Award Presentations: President Galleher announced the Champion and Reserve Champions from the National Sale show from earlier in the day and Melanie Barkley presented plaques. He also announced the 2009 Downsborough Sire of the Year keeper plaque that was presented to Riverwood Farms for "Dow Jones" Saylor Twin Oaks 615. President Galleher presented Tom Diel, the retiring director from the Great Plains Region, with a plaque of appreciation and also his president plaque for his presidential year of service from 2006-2007. John Monahan, Western Director, was not present but he is also retiring from the board and his appreciation plaque will be presented to him at a West Coast event. Thank-you to both Tom and John for their service to the Continental Dorset Club.

Barbara Cassell moved to adjourn the meeting. Evan Snyder seconded. Meeting was adjourned at 7:45 PM.

LETTER FROM CDC PRESIDENT MIKE GALLEHER

Spring has arrived early here in central Ohio. After a very snowy winter for our area, the warm weather was welcome change to most people around here. Spring also brings the beginning of the sale season starting with our National Show and Sale at the Ohio Dorset Sale in Eaton, Ohio last month. Ohio celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the sale.

Although the sale averages were down from the previous year in both the horned and polled, there were many good sheep sold. The horned consignment set a record for the number of head sold in the sale. The weather was much better than most years. I also had the opportunity to attend and sell at the Illini Sale in April. I thought that a good set of sheep sold well. I was encouraged by the number of young people buying at the sale.

Several exciting decisions were made at the CDC Board of Directors meeting. Frank Tiffany of New York, a former director and the webmaster of our webpage, showed the board a new registry program that he is developing for the club. The board is also working with the production Dorset committee and Frank to include production information on the registration papers. Another program that is being explored is to expand the ewe lamb futurity to include animals sold at the farm. At the present time only ewe lambs sold at sales can be nominated. Finally an ideal ewe statue is being developed to be used as a fund raiser for the club similar to the program that the Southdown Association has had for a number of years. The Polled Ewe will be the first in what we hope is a series of statues.

This was the last board meeting for two members. Tom Diel and John Monahan will be going off the board later in the year. Thanks to Tom and John for their years of service on the board. New board members are Johnny Johnson of California representing the West region and Casey Sidwell of Colorado representing the Great Plains region. Welcome to the board.

I hope to see you at a sale or show this summer!

Mike Galleher, CDC President

NORTHEAST DORSET ASSOCIATION HOLDS SPRING OPEN HOUSE AT ORCHARD VALLEY FARM, LEYDEN, MA

On an unpredictable spring day in New England on April 25th, members of the Northeast Dorset Breeders Association gathered at Orchard Valley Farm up in the Berkshire foothills of Western Massachusetts in Leyden. Orchard Valley Farm is the home of Hoop & Becky Peterson, their daughter Karin and her fiancé Dick. Hoop is our current New England CDC Director. They played very gracious hosts as several members of the New England Dorset family gathered.

Becky and Karin Peterson assist in steady-ing a fall ram lamb for Matt Parsons to scan its loin eye area and fat cover thickness.

Even though many of us traveled through rain to get there, by the time we arrived at the farm the skies were much brighter. Matt Parsons, livestock and grain producer from Hadley, MA, put on a loin eye scanning demonstration on several of the farms' Dorsets. Matt serves as the BIG E Market Lamb Show Supt. and does scanning each fall for the event. Thanks to Alice Newth of UMass, who brought along the newly acquired ultrasound machine at UMass in Amherst for our use. UMass is one of the three New England Universities that run Polled Dorsets on their school farm.

Members of the Northeast Dorset Breeders Association enjoying the tour of the farm given by Becky. Here they are looking at the brood ewe flock on spring pasture. The ewes had just been exposed for fall lambing so several green marked rumps were observed in the group.

Matt scanned different body types of lambs showing us the physical differences and how it translates to the scanning. It was very educational for the meeting attendees. Becky then gave us all a farm tour. Orchard Valley Farm is also the home of Southfield Corporation Polled Dorsets so there were several Dorsets to look at. They even had all the fall lambs cut out to look their best!

After the educational program and farm tour the group partook in a lamb stew lunch and association informal meeting. The group had plans to be ironed for the upcoming summer activities in New England. The NEDA gives a ewe lamb away each year to a deserving youth to encourage new Dorset owners in the area or to help upgrade a current Dorset youth's breeding program. They also co-host the New England Regional Junior Show at the Northeast Youth Sheep Show held in July at the BIG E Fairgrounds in conjunction with the New England Sale. After a great educational and social gathering folks headed back home in blue skies.

Becky also trains and raises Border Collies. One of her very capable dogs brings down the flock for the farm visitors to see.

Preventing Internal Parasites Through Pasture Management Principles

by Melanie Barkley

Penn State Extension Educator

As we all know, managing our sheep to control internal parasites can be quite challenging at times. Many of the products we use to deworm have lost their effectiveness and so we need to turn to other methods to prevent infections from internal parasites. Here are a few things to consider from a pasture management perspective to prevent internal parasites.

Divide your pastures into sections for rotational grazing. Most parasite larvae will be found in the first two to three inches of the pasture plants. By rotating sheep out of a pasture before the grass reaches three inches in height, we can prevent many of those parasites from being ingested by the sheep. A good rule of thumb is to have about 10 sections in your pasture. These sections should be grazed off in about four to five days at the maximum. (However, this can be longer during hot and dry weather.) The reasoning behind this is that once a parasite egg has been passed in the feces, it will take about four to five days for that egg to mature and hatch into a larva that can infect a sheep.

Another point is to allow each section to rest at least 30 days before re-grazing. This allows time for any larvae that are present in the field to use up their energy reserves and die. Keep in mind that this time frame can change depending on the density of the pasture plants and the moisture levels on the grasses from rain, humidity

Co-grazing sheep with beef cattle can help to break the life cycle of internal parasites on pastures. Follow one species with the other species through a rotational grazing system.

Allowing pastures to grow for 30 days or more in the spring can result in forage that will become too mature for grazing. Harvesting this forage for hay can decrease parasite larvae present on pastures. Once the hay is harvested, the remaining larvae are subjected to drying out from the sun, which will help to kill the larvae.

Another option is to seed your pastures with plants that contain tannins. According to Dr. Steve Hart from Langston University, the tannins interfere with parasite egg hatching and the development of larvae to an infectious stage. Two common plants that contain tannins include birdsfoot trefoil and sericea lespedeza. Check with your local Cooperative Extension Office for more information on adaptation of these species to your local area. In some areas sericea lespedeza can be very invasive, so you may need to be careful with where it is planted!

A final option to consider is to graze sheep with other animal species that will break the life cycle of the parasite. Cattle and horses are excellent for co-grazing because parasites that infect sheep will not be able to complete their life cycle in cattle or horses. Co-grazing works well by grazing sheep either before or after the cattle or horses. This allows one species to clean up the parasites left behind by the first species to graze the pasture. Co-grazing with goats will not work however because sheep and goats share some of the same parasites.

Using more than one method for preventing internal parasites will help to increase the success of your results. One last comment I might make is to pay close attention to the internal parasite treatments on the sheep in your flock. Maintain treatment records for all sheep in the flock. For any sheep that need treated more often than others, you should consider culling them from the flock. There is a good chance that these sheep are carrying a majority of the parasites and are the culprits for re-infecting the flock. Over time, culling these carrier sheep will help to build genetic resistance to internal parasites in the remaining sheep and decrease the need for deworming.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

DORSET WETHERS TO BE REGISTERED FOR CDC SPONSORED EVENTS

Starting in 2011 the CDC will be requiring that Dorset wethers be registered in CDC sponsored events. This would include the All American Junior Show, the National Junior Dorset Shows in Louisville and the six Regional Junior Dorset Shows around the country.

The CDC plans on continuing to support these market lamb shows with funding from the money generated from these registrations. The CDC will provide registration certificates to wethers and they will be designated as such on the papers.

The CDC also sponsors several market lamb shows awards around the country, if the Grand Champion Overall is a purebred Dorset the CDC will pay $500 and $250 for Reserve Champion. Starting in 2011 the registration paper information will need to be provided in order to collect these awards. The CDC looks forward to being able to provide continuing support of the Dorset Market Lambs shows around the country!

GREAT PLAINS & WESTERN CDC DIRECTOR ELECTIONS RESULTS

This past spring the CDC held director elections in the Great Plains and Western Regions. Great Plains Director Tom Diel has served two terms on the board for the CDC and retired from the board. Casey Sidwell of Gill, CO has been elected to serve as the Great Plains Director starting this September.

The Western Region elected a new director in Johnnie Johnson of Davis, CA. Johnnie will be replacing current director John Monahan, Petaluma, CA. Many thanks go to John and Tom for their service on the CDC Board.

Congratulations to Johnnie and Casey for being elected. Looking forward to working with them for the next three years on the CDC Board of Directors.

ANNOUNCING SUMMER/FALL CDC OFFICE CLOSINGS

The CDC Office remains committed to providing the best service to our breeders on registration work but due to some budget constraints we are cutting back on outside help in the CDC office. We will still be able to provide you with timely service but there are times when I will be out of the office in this busy upcoming sale and show season. Please make note of these times and plan accordingly:

-June 30- July 6, 2010- All-American Junior Show

-July 15-16, 2010 - New England Sale & New England Regional Jr. Dorset Show

-July 30- Aug 9, 2010 - Secretary's Vacation

-September 13-29, 2010 - Eastern States Exposition Sheep Show

CDC RULES GUIDE, CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS AVAILABLE ONLINE

The CDC Rules Guide which provides the Dorset breeder with all the information and rules about registering Dorset sheep, and membership in the CDC will be posted on the CDC website. The CDC website address is: www.dorset.homestead.com

The CDC updated Constitution and By-Laws is also available on the website. The CDC is trying to be more cost conscientious while still providing the CDC members with all the information they need. These two documents will only be posted on the website in the future. If you do not have access to the internet, please feel free to contact the CDC office and we will be happy to send you hard copies of these documents.

2010 DORSET EXCELLENCE AWARDS

The CDC encourages Dorset breeders to check out the Dorset Breeder Excellence Award program and encourages interested breeders to apply for the award. The deadline for this year's awards is December 31, 2010. The award application appears in its entirety on the CDC website: www.dorsets.homestead.com. The reason why we are promoting this program so early in the year is because pictures are a part of the application process and breeders might want to be taking some as we go through 2010.

Last year the CDC did not have anyone apply after a very successful applicant year in 2008. The CDC wants to remind breeders that they can definitely re-apply if not selected.

The 2008 winners received special recognition not only in the CDC Newsletter/Webpage but in press releases sent out to National Sheep Industry periodicals besides also receiving a cash award and perpetual trophy.

The CDC would like to promote our great Dorset breeders across the entire sheep industry and this program was developed in order to enable the CDC to do so and we encourage all of those interested to apply!

THE DORSET FAMILY LOOSES BREEDERS IN RECENT MONTHS

The Dorset breed has sadly lost four of its breeders in recent months:

~Bernice Linman, Buffalo, Missouri~

~Brice Leonard, Rhodes, Iowa~

~Darrell Rincker, Stewardson, Illinois~

~Don Saylor, Belle Center, OH~

The CDC expresses its sincerest condolences and sympathies to all the members of these breeders families and only wish them the best in these sad times.

Applicants will be notified of the selections by October 10, 2010. REGIONAL JUNIOR SHOW ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Following are the eligibility requirements for the Regional Junior Dorset Shows for your information:

- 1) Exhibitor must be a current member of the CDC whether in the youth enrollment program or as a lifetime member.
 - 2) Exhibitor needs to be 21 years old or younger as of January 1st of the current year. There is no lower age limit but the exhibitor must be able to lead and/or control the head of his/her animal in the show ring.
 - 3) Exhibitor must be present to show their own animals unless physically impaired. The junior owner will need to be at the head of the animal controlling it in the show ring, unless of course they have more than one entry in a class in which case another junior exhibitor showing their second animal is acceptable.
 - 4) Sheep must be registered in the youth's name. Youth partnerships are acceptable except for futurity animals which must be in the individual youth owner's name ONLY. Farm names or "family" ownerships are not acceptable.
 - 5) Exhibitor can show at an unlimited number of regional junior shows per year, the CDC does prefer they at least show at the regional show in which they reside if possible.
 - 7) EW E FUTURITY PROGRAM: Your futurity ewe can earn double points at a regional junior show for the futurity ewe program. If you show at more than one regional show only your top point total will be doubled.
- Regional junior shows are sometimes held in conjunction with existing shows so there definitely may be other show specific rules and regulations that

LETTER FROM JUNIOR DORSET ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT TROY LONGENECKER

Finally, the winter is over, the lambs are weaned and all cut out for the start of an amazing show season. Sales have been progressing across the country with our National being held at the Ohio Dorset Sale. We had a fair turnout of buyers and an excellent set of sheep provided by all of the consignors young and old. Fellow Junior members did very well with their consignments, with such recognition as Michael Houfe winning National Sale Horned Dorset Ewe, and Grace Murphy with her high selling "Sweet Thing" yearling ewe.

The All-American Jr. Show should be the highlight of everyone's summer in East Lansing, Michigan from July 1-4th. This event is filled with activities from the basketball tournament to other promotional contests. On Saturday the 3rd, we also hold a Dorset picnic and a meeting with the families of the Junior Members exhibiting. I encourage all of you to attend your respective Regional Junior Shows this summer and fall. If you purchased and are participating in the futurity program, these shows offer double points to rack up for your National total at the conclusion of the show season in NAILE.

I wish everyone the best of luck and to have a lot of fun this spring and summer at the junior shows and sales.

Troy Longenecker,
Junior Dorset Association President

apply. Please be aware of these additional requirements when making out your entries to these special shows.

DORSET EWE FUTURITY PROGRAM GETTING ANOTHER GREAT START IN 2010

To date we have had 106 polled ewe lambs nominated in the spring Dorset Sales, and 43 lambs have been tattooed by their new junior owners to participate in this year's program. In the horned dorset ewe lamb futurity, we have had 27 ewe lambs nominated, 14 head have been tattooed by their new junior owners. The yearling ewe program has had a record 9 nominations this year.

Four breeders have elected to participate in the group nomination program where all of their ewe lambs sold at this year's designated sales will be eligible for the futurity. Thank you to the following group nominators:

-Riverwood Farms, Powell, OH-
-Superior Farms, Yukon, OK-

Of course there are a lot of individual nominators also. The overwhelming support by the Dorset breeders is the major reason why this program has become so successful! Juniors are able to select from a large number of ewe lambs that will fit into both their breeding program and financial budget. There are plenty of sales remaining where junior buyers can select futurity ewe lambs. See the sales listed in the Dorset Calendar on page 4.

The CDC Board of Directors is looking into developing a division in the futurity program for off-farm purchases. This is being look at in the areas like the Western and Great Plains regions where they are very few sales for junior Dorset breeders to attend to purchase their animals and travel to sales becomes a hardship. The CDC has had the least participation in the futurity program in these regions because of this. If you have any opinion on this new division please let the director know in your area. Your input as a future participant is greatly appreciated.

Often times breeders will boast about a great individual in their flock. But how does one truly measure the genetic influence of a particular animal in a breeding program? We may not have the exact answer you're looking for, but we do know this...RF 3035 has set the bar high in the Dorset Breed! Far more impressive than being a National Champion herself, she has dammed National Champion Rams in "High Definition" and "Incision". Her grandsons are notable studs such as "Primo", "Dow Jones", "S&P" and "Optimus Prime". With these credentials, wouldn't you consider her a "Power Female"?

Look At What We're Bringing To The...

Ram & Ewe Farm 521

521 is the Yearling Ram we've entered at Sedalia. He is a full brother to "Switch Back" and "Road Runner". "Switch Back" sired "Wouldja", our Champion Ram at last year's Midwest Stud Ram Sale which later went on to be Reserve Grand Champion and Best Headed Ram at the NAILE for Turtle Mead Farm. We have used this ram for fall lambs. His sire is "S & P" Saylor's Twin Oaks 616, and his dam is Ram & Ewe Farm 0332 (a "Backflash" daughter).

Sedalia, MO • June 21-26

Look for these two top stud ram prospects at Sedalia, plus... a Fall Ram Lamb sired by "Rewind" and at least one Spring Ram Lamb sired by "S & P" or "Jake".

Thank You!

Thanks to all of our recent buyers and supporters of our program. We look forward to seeing everyone at Sedalia and at the summer shows!

Ram & Ewe Farm 572

572 is a Late Fall Ram Lamb entered at the Midwest Sale. His sire is "Wouldja" ("Switch Back" x Highfield 523) and his dam is Ram & Ewe Farm 497 ("S & P" x "RSVP" daughter).
