Dear Dorset Breeders,

Welcome to the 2019 Fall Dorset Connection Online Edition. The board made the decision to go with this type of version for the Fall Issue of the Dorset Connection. It has been very well received the last few years so please let us know what you think!

The Fall Issue has a lot of news and information it as I don't have to worry about costs so we can put in a lot of interesting extra items. So, please make sure you check everything out.

The Winter Connection will remain as a printed issue and will be mailed directly to our membership and to everyone who bought a registered Dorset last year, and it will also be utilized for promotional purposes for the Dorset breed during the spring & summer events. The Spring/Summer issue had little advertising support last year and was also an online issue, the future of this issue will be discussed at the Fall CDC Board meeting.

Enjoy the color pictures and ads, as it costs nothing to add this feature with the online version. This newsletter will be emailed directly to all CDC members that have a current email on file with the CDC office and will also be available on the CDC Website.

Thank you for your continued support and enjoy the newsletter!

Editor, Deb Hopkins

CDC PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE MICHAEL POPE

Greetings to all!

Now that the calendar has flipped to October here in Indiana, fall lambing is beginning to wind down and the combines are rolling. As this newsletter finds you, I hope you have had a successful breeding season and a bountiful fall lamb crop to start your fall off right!

It has been a great year for Dorsets and our youth! The All-American Junior Show and all of our Regionals were well attended by high quality sheep and top-notch kids! I would like to thank everyone who has volunteered at any of the youth shows this summer, it takes a huge group of people to provide our youth with the amazing opportunities that they have today. Thank You!

Now that the fall show season has arrived, many of us will be looking ahead to the NAILE. Keep an eye out for details on the annual Junior Association meeting and awards/pizza party. Also, please remember that the CDC slick shearing policy will be enforced at the NAILE junior and open shows.

On a sad note, the CDC lost one of our own this year with the passing of our Western Region Director Bob Heuvel. Please continue to keep his family and friends in your thoughts... Per CDC by-laws, there will be an announcement made this fall in regards to an appointee to fulfill Bob's remaining term on the CDC board. The new appointee will be established and in place before the annual December teleconference.

I am looking forward to seeing those in attendance at the NAILE! As always, feel free to reach out to myself or any board member should the need arise. I hope all of you have a safe winter and a wonderful holiday season spent with your family!

Michael Pope, CDC President

MEET YOUR NEW CDC DIRECTOR & BOARD NEWS

GREAT PLAINS REGION DIRECTOR BART CALDWELL

"Hi, I am Bart Cardwell from Lamont, OK. My wife, Judy and two children, Abby and Otto live on a small farm in north central Oklahoma. Our kids are 4-H and FFA members of the Deer Creek-Lamont (DCLA) School where they attend. Both raise, feed and show Dorset and Dorset Advantage lambs as a part of their youth livestock program. Through their work and dedication they have enjoyed much success with their Dorsets this past year as Abby exhibited the Champion Dorset Ewe at the 2019 OYE last spring with a bred and owned ewe. Otto exhibited the Res. Champion Dorset Advantage Ewe at the same OYE show.

I work for Northern Oklahoma College as an Ag Instructor and Sheep Center Manager for the Division of Agriculture and Biological Sciences in Tonkawa, OK. I manage a purebred sheep center at the college that consists of Dorset, Hampshire, Shropshire and Suffolk breeds of sheep. This teaching flock is utilized for our students and many high school and collegiate livestock judging teams that travel through the area on their way to contests.

I have been involved in ag education for all of my professional life. I have worked as an Ag Ed Teacher and Extension Educator for 12 years prior to my tenure at NOC which started in 2007.

I served on the Sheep Committees at the Tulsa State Fair and Oklahoma Youth Expo until my own children started showing in 2013. I am currently on the Market Lamb committee at NAILE. I believe strongly in utilizing sheep as a project to teach and equip youth with valuable life skills.

I plan to continue to encourage the regional Dorset shows in the Southern Plains and other regions as well as support the All American show in the summer."

LOSS OF CDC WESTERN DIRECTOR BOB HEUVEL

It is with great sadness to report the passing of CDC Director Bob Heuvel, Wilton, CA this past August due to health reasons. Bob was just re-elected to serve his second three year term on the CDC Board of directors and he will be sorely missed on the board.

Bob was a great supporter of the Dorset breed among its youth as he was a retired FFA/Ag Educator in the State of California. Bob was inducted into the CA Teachers Hall of Fame a couple of years ago, which was quite an honor for him. Bob was the owner of Heuvel Club Lambs where he incorporated Dorset genetics into his breeding program.

The CDC will be appointing a person to fulfill Bob's second term on the CDC board and also hopes to honor Bob in some way at a youth event in California to herald his accomplishments and honor his activities in the Dorset breed. Our deepest condolences to his friends and family.

CDC FALL BOARD TELEPHONE MEETING

If you are interested in running for director and reside in one of these regions please contact a member of the appropriate nominating committee by January 1, 2019. These committees need to have their slate of nominees with resumes into the CDC Office by January 10, 2020. The CDC adult membership in these districts will be voting in Late January/February for their directors. The newly elected directors term will take effect as of September 1, 2020.

The regional director is asked to attend at least two board meetings per year, one in person at the National Sale site and at least one tele-conference. They are also responsible for organization of the regional junior Dorset show in their region.

Current North Central Director Dick Reece is retiring off the board. Thank you Dick for your great service to the board and the Dorset breed! Current Eastern Director Glenn Stunkel is just coming off his first term and is eligible to run again for a second term.

The CDC needs interested breeders to help navigate the Dorset breed through these changing times in the purebred sheep industry. If you are interested in becoming a CDC director please contact a member of the nominating committees. Your willingness to serve is greatly appreciated. The CDC board consists of 6 members and it is highly important that folks step up to serve to ensure the progress of the Dorset breed into the future.

2020 HALL OF FAME NOMINEES NEEDED

Nominations for the Dorset Hall of Fame are due by January 15, 2020, which is earlier this year as the CDC Annual Membership Meeting is earlier in 2020. Presentation of the 2020 Class of the Dorset Hall of Fame inductees will be at the Ohio Dorset Sale, March 20, 2020 where the CDC Annual Meeting will be taking place. If you know of a deserving individual please get the nomination form filled out and sent into the CDC Office. The form can be found on the CDC website, www.dorsets.homestead.com, under the "Hall of Fame" tab.

People selected to the "Hall of Fame" will be recognized by the CDC with an appreciation plaque at the annual meeting and will be listed on the CDC website recognizing their contributions to the Dorset breed. Any person in the sheep industry may make nominations. Once a name is submitted they will remain nominated so no repeat nominations need to be made the following year.

The CDC started this program in 2012 to recognize individuals who have contributed a lot to the Dorset breed in different capacities. There are many more folks that need to be recognized so please fill out the forms and get into the CDC office for consideration. This program is a highlight of annual CDC membership meeting as it always a great honor to recognize those who have contributed to the Dorset breed over the years to make it the breed it is today in the purebred sheep industry.

Monitor Body Condition Scoring and Nutrition From Breeding Through Early Pregnancy

by Melanie Barkley, PSU Extension Educator

Producers should strive to meet nutritional requirements for their sheep regardless of the time of year. This becomes even more important during breeding season and throughout pregnancy. Body condition scores impact ovulation rates, nutrition impacts body condition scores, and nutrition also plays an important role in embryonic survival.

Sheep body condition is scored using a 5-point scale: 1 indicates an emaciated sheep, 3 indicates average body condition, and 5 indicates an obese sheep. The optimum body condition score for ewes at the start of the breeding is 3. However, we know from research that ewes with a lower body condition score will respond better to flushing than ewes with higher body condition scores. Flushing is the process of increasing the plane of nutrition several weeks prior to breeding. This process should be continued throughout the breeding season. This is important because flushing follicular development and maturation, which impacts ovulation rates.

In order to improve body condition scores of thin ewes, a good goal would be to increase body weight by 10% over a 100-day period. A good balance might mean that producers strive to have their ewe flock scoring slightly below a 3 in order to take advantage of flushing to increase twinning rate. All ewes should gradually gain weight so that by the time they lamb they have reached a body condition score slightly higher than a 3.

In addition to body condition scores, producers should manage body weight on young ewes. Yearlings should weigh at least 80% of their mature weight by the start of the breeding season and ewe lambs should weigh 65 to 70% of their mature weight. In order for ewe lambs to reach this desired weight, most will require a grain supplement. In general, sheep gain approximately a quarter to a third of a pound on pasture. This rate of gain results in ewe lambs weighing less than recommended for breeding. Therefore, producers should calculate weight gain required and adjust rations to accommodate a faster rate of gain.

For example, a ewe lamb that weighs 85 lbs. at weaning would need to gain 90 lbs. if her expected mature weight is 175 lbs. If she was 90 days old at weaning, will be 395 days old (13 months) old at lambing, and is pregnant for 148 days, then she needs to gain 90 lbs. over 157 days. So, she needs to consume a ration that allows her to gain a little more than half a pound a day to achieve her minimum weight goal.

Rams should fall into the body condition score range of 3 to 4. Rams below a score of 3 often have poorer quality sperm while rams above a body condition score of 4 may lack libido to breed the ewes. You can expect rams to lose weight during the breeding season, so the higher score of 4 may be preferable. Maintaining rams at these scores promotes their ability to settle a targeted 75% of the ewe flock in the first heat cycle and 98% by the end of the second heat cycle. Always mark a ram in order to identify any issues with a ram settling ewes. Change marking colors every 14 days to identify repeat breedings.

Maintaining body condition scores, or improving those for thin ewes, during the first 90 days of pregnancy helps promote embryo survival. The embryo implants itself in the uterus about 3 weeks after fertilization and placental development occurs shortly after that. The placenta connects the developing fetus (lamb) to its mother and provides nourishment for the fetus to grow plus eliminates waste products. Good nutrition allows the placenta to develop to full size during this period, thus providing optimal amounts of nutrients to the fetus. Poor placental development can impact lamb birth weights and can ultimately impact the future reproductive potential of a lamb. Lamb birthweight is one of the greatest predictors of lamb survival: smaller lambs are less likely to survive birth as compared to lambs with average birth weights. Approximately 70% of lamb mortalities that occur prior to weaning occur during the first 48 hours after birth.

Rations should provide adequate energy, protein, vitamins and minerals. Typically, good quality pasture and a good quality mineral mix provide sufficient nutrients to support the pregnancy. However, pay close attention to pasture mixtures during the first 45 days of gestation. Legumes, and red clover in particular, produce phytoestrogens. These estrogenic compounds can impact reproduction by reducing ovulation and conception rates. Fertility generally returns to normal within four to six weeks after removing the sheep from pastures containing high levels of phytoestrogens.

As breeding season continues, be sure to assess body condition scores of ewes and rams. Make sure they receive adequate nutrition to support a body condition score of 3 or provide additional nutrients in the ration to improve body condition scores. The ultimate goal is for ewes to consume a ration that will promote ovulation rates to conceive twins, support embryo survival and result in a health set of twins.

Good nutrition prior to breeding, throughout the breeding season and throughout pregnancy promotes embryonic survival.

It is our one opportunity to gather all the Dorset juniors and their families together to recognize our junior Dorset breeders and get to know each other so please make plans to attend, never mind the free pizza and drinks.

For open show exhibitors: In addition to sending in your entries and entry fees to the NAILE when entering the show, please don't forget to send in the matching $15.00 per individual entry in the Open Polled and Horned Dorset shows directly to the CDC Office. This enables the CDC to provide matching funds and to guarantee at least $10.00 per individual entry in premiums. These matching funds need to be sent to the CDC office ASAP if you haven't done so yet. Please note that junior show sheep do not have to send in matching funds unless they are staying on to be shown in the open shows.

We have three types of Dorsets being shown in the Open Polled Show and there will be three Premier Exhibitor banners presented: Fitted, Slick Shorn and Wether Type. Group classes are still shown together but groups can be made up of different divisional types BUT per NAILE rules, in the event of a tie for a premier exhibitor banner, the flock class is the tie breaker, should this happen with a Dorset divisional premier, only flocks that completely represent their division will count towards a tie breaker. Exhibitors are solely responsible for determining what to show in their flock and are solely responsible for how it would affect them in the event that are in a tie.

For those of you unable to attend the shows in person, all shows can be viewed live streamed by going to the North American International Livestock Show website.

Looking forward to seeing everyone in Louisville this year and to another great set of National Dorset Shows!

DICK KUZEMCHAK INDUCTED INTO PENNSYLVANIA LIVESTOCK HALL OF FAME AT K.I.L.E.

Richard Kuzemchak is a life-long shepherd. Originally from Clymer, PA (Indiana County), Dick grew up on his family crop and livestock farm. He started raising sheep when he was 14 years old as his FFA project. While attending Penn State University, he lived and worked in the sheep barns, located on Ag Hill. In the fall of 1966, Dick was one of two students to move into the present Beef and Sheep Center. Dick graduated from Penn State University in 1968 with a degree in Animal Industry. During his time at Penn State, he spent countless hours under the tutelage of Carroll Shaffner, shepherd, tending the Southdown, Cheviot, Shropshire, Hampshire, Horned Dorset, Polled Dorset, Suffolk, and commercial ewe flocks. While a student, he was an active member of the Block and Bridle Club, claiming the title of Grand Champion Sheep Showman from 1965 to 1968 at the Little International. Dick was also the Supreme Showman during his senior year. He was a member of the meats judging team and the livestock judging team. In 1967, Dick was the high scoring individual in sheep judging at KILE. Following college, Dick spent two years with the United States Marines, proudly earning the rank of Sargent before returning home to PA. Dick succeeded Shaffner as shepherd at Penn State in February 1971 and continued the legacy of shepherding and high production flocks. He retired from Penn State in 2009 after 38 years. During his time, Dick bred and showed champion sheep for Penn State at the many sheep shows and sales across the country with champions in Chicago and Louisville.

One of the many highlights to his career was the 2005 show season. The Penn State Sheep Program attended seven sales throughout the country and were awarded the following champions: National Champion Ewe, 2 Supreme Champions, 6 Grand Champions, 3 Reserve Grand Champions, 2 Junior Champions, and 3 Reserve Senior Champions. Additionally, receiving 3 Best Consignment Awards over all breeds! The Penn State Polled Dorset flock was undefeated that year at the Ohio State Fair, Indiana State Fair, Eastern States Exposition, and North American International Livestock Exposition. The enthusiasm and excitement carried through to 2006. In that year, sheep history was made with a record breaking production sale! Dorset enthusiasts traveled from 22 different states and Puerto Rico to attend the Penn State Sheep Production sale. With 124 registered buyers, 229 head of sheep were sold, averaging $1,238./head! There were 21 states with successful bidders, stretching from Maine to Washington.

Dick's career involved not only the day to day care of these sheep but the decisions of which ewes and rams to use in their breeding program. He developed a Dorset that would not only win in the show ring but also provided a good carcass for the commercial producer. These sheep became the foundation of many Dorset flocks. As important as the sheep that Dick produced, is the time and energy that he spent teaching students about sheep and the industry as well as facilitating ongoing sheep research at the barn. Many of these students continue to be active in the sheep industry as adults. Dick touched the lives of countless students during his tenure at Penn State and enjoys watching his former students become successful in their chosen careers. He has been a Penn State

Little International dedicatee twice over the years, sharing his dedication to the livestock industry.

Dick has judged many state, regional and county sheep shows mainly on the east coast with the highlight being the National Dorset Show and Sale at the Eastern States Livestock Exposition. He serves on the Keystone International Livestock Exposition and PA Farm Show Sheep Committees.

Dick has a daughter, Julie, two sons, Scott and Joe, and nine grandchildren. He now resides in Pleasant Gap with his wife of 50 years, Gayle. Sharing his passion for the sheep industry, his children won Champion or Reserve Champion market lamb at the PA Farm Show twelve times with some of those being in consecutive years. Dick is also active in the American Legion Post 867, Pleasant Gap, serving as 1st Vice Commander and current Vice President. Dick continues to be active in the Dorset industry as a judge and flock consultant. Over the years he has been a consultant for many major Dorset flocks; helping with the management, care, showing and breeding decisions. In 2015 Dick was inducted into the Continental Dorset Hall of Fame. His influence can be seen in the sheep of many Pennsylvania flocks.

Congratulations to Dick on this most recent honor that was bestowed on him at the recent Keystone International Livestock Exposition held in Harrisburg, PA. Truly a great honor that is well deserved!

DORSETS REIGN SUPREME

The Dorset breed in the show ring has excelled once again this show season! The quality of Dorsets being shown is exceptional and all Dorset breeders should be very proud of their animals. There wasn't a major show around the country, open or youth, where during Supreme Champion drives there wasn't a Dorset pulled out vying for the honor. Several breeders sent in photos of their Supremes. Congratulations to all on your great accomplishments!

2019 KANSAS ALL AMERICAN JUNIOR SHOW

The 2019 All American Junior Show was held at the Kansas State Fairgrounds, Hutchinson, KS from July 4-7, 2019. This was the show's second trip to Kansas and the show grew by leaps & bounds! There were 474 exhibitors attending from 25 states showing 1897 head of sheep. We went to a new expanded schedule, added a few more activities and the welcomed the Suffolks into the show, and everything turned out to be a great success and very well received. The Kansas hosts, especially Jeff Ebert and Ted Van Horn, did a remarkable job of hosting this show and a BIG THANK-YOU goes out to them all!

The Polled, Horned and Dorset Advantage divisions showed on three different days by three different judges. The breed had excellent participation and had several exhibitors showing for their first time in an All American. The Dorset show had 128 head of Polled Dorsets shown, 28 head of Horned Dorsets and 59 head of Dorset Advantage. Congratulations to Hainsley Hatfield, OH; Keegan Padgett, IN; and Colton Miller, IN for being named the top guns for the Polled, Horned and Dorset Advantage shows respectively. All the show results and photos can be found later on in this newsletter.

The National Junior Dorset Association had their Summer Ice Cream Social Meet & Greet on Saturday for all the Dorset families. There were several new exhibitors to the All American this year and it was great to get to meet everyone. Thank-you to the Dorset families and the National Junior Officers that helped out with the event, especially NDJA President Katie Muir. The NJDA handed out several first time Dorset Showman mementos to the Dorset exhibitors at this year's All American and they all did a great job!

The Dorset juniors represented very well in the events held during the weekend. Following are some highlights of their accomplishments:

- Graham Williams, KS: 1st Individual Showmanship Winner

The Dorset breed actually supports three shows and with out the breeder support it would not be possible. ## CDC & NDJA YOUTH DORSET EWE PURCHASE GRANT PROGRAM

The National Junior Dorset Association and the CDC introduced a grant program for youth to use towards the purchase of a Dorset ewe and it has been very successful for the past six years, as we received a record number of 41 applications last year. The associations' awards three $500 grants annually to be used towards the purchase of a registered Dorset ewe, last year the CDC board actually awarded an additional grant due to quantity and quality of applicants.

The 2019 winners of the Dorset Youth Ewe Purchase Grants are Junior Division: Abigail Slaydon, LA (bought a Horned ewe lamb from Ewephoric Horned Dorsets, TX) & Kalena Troupe, OK (bought a ewe lamb from Lauralee Martin-Prough, OK); Intermediate Division: Cody Sievert, MN (bought a ewe lamb from Circle S-Schoenfeld Family, MN) and

NATIONAL JUNIOR DORSET ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT KATIE MUIR

The fall is a busy time of year for many people as harvest begins, lambing is in full swing and people are preparing for the final show of the year. As we approach November it's time to start thinking about NAILE and all of the activities we have planned. On Saturday, November 16, at 6:30pm we will be holding our annual Jr. meeting where the selected scholarship winners will be announced along with futurity winners and new officers will be elected. If you're interested in running for a junior office please let a current officer know so we can get you added to the ballot.

As the year wraps up I'll leave you with a few questions to ponder into the new year: What were some of this years highs for your farm/flock? What were some of the lows? How will you implement the lessons from your trying times to improve yourself or your flock?

Katie Muir, NJDA President

Senior Division: Caleb Durham, OH (bought a ewe lamb from Chad Heisdorffer, IA).

A very simple one page application form is available on the CDC website or you may contact the CDC office to forward you a copy. If you have applied previously but haven't yet been selected please do so again. This is a great way to obtain funding towards the purchase of a Dorset breeding female.

Please get an application in today or get to an interested youth today! The application deadline is December 1st, 2019

Right is a picture of Cody Sievert, MN showing his Dorset ewe lamb, Mozzarella, at the Minnesota State Fair this past summer. Cody purchased the lamb from Schoenfeld Family in Minnesota with the money awarded him through the Youth Ewe Purchase Grant program. Cody was awarded the grant from the intermediate division. Congratulations to Cody on his success with his ewe lamb and look forward to hearing about future accomplishments with his Dorset ewe in the upcoming years.
