DORSETS SHINE AT 2011 NATIONAL SHOWS

The Dorset breed has certainly enjoyed a very successful 2011 with record high consignment sales averages, an increased number of off farm sales for seed stock and emerging as a very competitive breed in the wether sire & dam part of the purebred sheep industry. Last November the Dorset breed also shone in the show ring at the NAILE National Shows as the depth of quality presented was amazing once again. The Polled shows featured sperate slick shorn champions for the first time. Breeder response and participation was at a record number. The Horned Dorsets were on probation but came back strong with numbers and an exceptional set of sheep being presented in the ring. Thank-you to all the breeders!

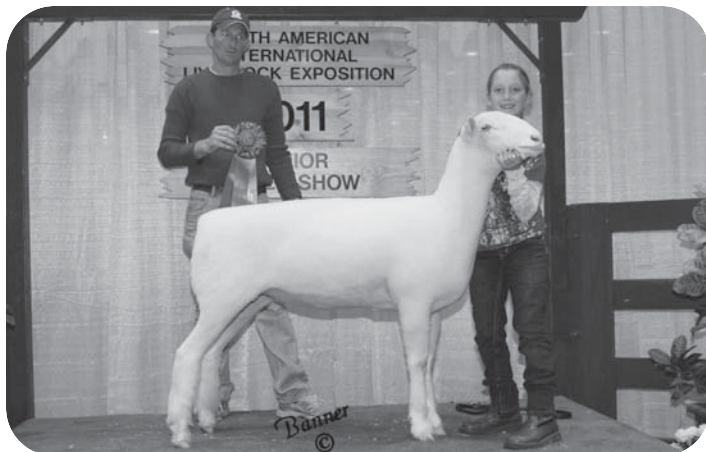

The week was topped off with the Grand Champion Polled Dorset Ewe from the Open Show being named as the 2011 NAILE Supreme Champion Ewe. The yearling ewe named "Hide Away" was bred by Ram & Ewe Farm, South Solon, OH. It hasn't been since 1995 that this special award has been awarded to a Dorset Ewe. Congratulations to Jeremy & Jamie Etzler and their family on this special honor.

The Dorset Futurity Program had another successful year and the National Winners were announced at the NAILE Junior Shows. Kylie Schakel of Morristown, IN won the National Polled Ewe Lamb Futurity with a Ram & Ewe Farms bred ewe lamb; Austin Inbody, Bluffton, OH won the Horned Dorset Ewe Lamb Futurity with a John Mrozinski bred ewe lamb and Michael Pope of Morristown, IN won the Dorset Yearling Ewe Futurity with his Riverwood Farms bred yearling ewe "Eureka". Congratulations to all these young folks on doing an excellent job with their purchased females!

THANK-YOU to all of the advertisers for your support!

The CDC will continue publishing "The Dorset Connection" three times per year with the Fall Issue being an online only publication. The Fall issue has notoriously had the lowest advertising support making it difficult to print and mail that issue cost effectively. The Fall issue will still feature breeder display ads at a reduced rate as set-up costs still need to be met. The issue will be emailed to all CDC members, that have email addresses on file with the CDC office, and it will appear on the CDC web site during the fall months for online viewing. The Winter and Spring/Summer issues will remain printed, mailed out publications as well as being available for online viewing at the CDC website.

LETTER FROM CDC PRESIDENT CASEY SIDWELL

Happy New Year! I'm sure this issue of the Dorset Connection finds many of you in the midst of your spring lambing season. Hopefully, the weather and your ewes are treating you kindly. I'm guessing that most of you are like me, and that lambing time--though the most labor intensive--is your favorite part of the production cycle. Somehow, getting to see a new generation of genetic progress spring into the world makes the work seem lighter.

After lambing time is over the next challenge is marketing. Regardless of whether you grow sheep for the show ring, as commercial seed stock or the locker, getting your product marketed well has a direct effect on profitability. I would encourage everyone to add at least one extra facet to their marketing plan in 2012. Whether that be adding a new show or sale to your schedule, establishing or refurbishing your web presence or running a print ad.

I personally couldn't begin to quantify the value of hauling my sheep to shows and sales. If you are raising show sheep, people need to see them. I have also been extremely happy with the value I have gotten out of the ads I have run in the Dorset Connection. The price is reasonable and there is no other place I can have a print ad reach more people that are raising Dorset sheep.

If show ring success is the least of your production goals, but rather your focus is on performance in the pasture, or on the rail, it is even more important for you to get your name out. Those that share your goals and are looking for your kind of product need to know where you are and what you offer.

I look forward to seeing all those who attend the 2012 National Dorset Sale this April 6-7 in Bloomington, Illinois. This year it will be held in conjunction with the Illini All-Breeds Spring Sale. The Illinois folks have really been working hard to make this a great event for all.

Casey Sidwell, CDC President

Coulter Passwaters moved to accept the treasurer's report. Johnnie Johnson seconded. Motion carried. Deb Hopkins reported that the 2010-2011 fiscal records are going to the accountants for the annual tax from filing and noted that the association cut its loss in half from the year before but still suffered a $4300 loss even with the expense cutting efforts last year. After discussing how to get sheep registrations up, Johnnie Johnson moved to have an amnesty registry program in 2012 for animals over 2 years of age at the time of registration, and the cost will be $3.50 for members and $4.50 for non-members. Mike Galleher seconded the motion. Motion carried.

-CDC Stats: Deb Hopkins reported the current 2011-2012 stats and 727 head have been registered to date (up 220 head from last year) and 516 head transferred (up 112 head from last year). Deb Hopkins also reported the year-end stats for 2010-2011. There were 6045 head registered (down 195 head from the previous year) and transferred 2,912 head (down 245 head from the previous year). The top fifteen states in registrations were: 1)Pennsylvania 596 head; 2)Indiana 546; 3)Ohio 542; 4)Iowa 537; 5)Illinois 475; 6)Minnesota 408; 7)California 291; 8)Oklahoma 238; 9)Wisconsin 217; 10)Oregon 213; 11)Virginia 212; 12)Washington 180; 13)Missouri 151; Hunter, IN (Production) 116; 4)Roger Huntrods & Sons, IA (Wether & Production) 104; 5) H.F. Sanford & Sons, MN (Frame) 56; 6) Brent Wastaney Sheep Farm, IA (Wether) 56; 7)Tie-Riverwood Farms, OH (Frame) 50; 7)Tie-K Bar K Farms, PA (Production) 50; 7)Tie-Brian & Melanie Barkley, PA (Production & Frame) 50; 10) Mithoefer Dorsets, IN (Frame) 48; 11) Paul R. Cassell, VA (Horned) 47; 12) Kirsten Sass Hatfield, OH (Wether & Production) 46; 13)Tie-Robert VanderSchaaf, IV (Production) 45; 13)Tie-Monte Forster, OR (Horned) 45; 15) Steve Swenka Family, IA (Wether & Production) 44.

-Correspondence: Deb Hopkins reported that she has received many thank-you notes and letters from participants in the Louisville judging contests including the 4-H Skil-athon Contest as the CDC sponsors awards in all of the judging events in Louisville. Also a note of thanks from Larry Mead was also received on his honoring at Sedalia and from junior participants in the CDC sponsored regional junior shows. Benjamin Calkins also sent a thank-you for being the 2011 recipient of the Dorset Excellence Award.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

-Dorset Futurity: Deb Hopkins presented the final futurity standings for the 2011 program. A total of $3,380 was paid out to 19 participants. Average payout was $177.89. Awards and rosettes were presented to regional and national winners. There were 129 polled ewe lambs nominated for the program taking in $3,225 in nomination fees. 38 polled ewe lambs were tattooed for participation. The yearling ewe program had 8 nominations taking in $200 in nomination fees. The horned ewe lamb futurity had 26 ewe lambs nominated taking in $675 in nomination fees. 13 horned ewe lambs were tattooed for participation. Discussion was held that the program need to be promoted to the breeders of registered Dorset wether dams as these animals are also eligible to participate and earn premiums as they will gain good points from the shows they participate in their regions. Coulter Passwaters moved to delete the required futurity tattooing policy, and to go with the flock identification and federal premise & individual id number as the official identification for the futurity program. Both numbers need to match the registration papers on the animal to earn points and notification of any re-tagging needs to be made to the CDC office prior to the showing of the animal. Jeff Poynter seconded the motion, Motion carried. Discussion on the possibility of starting a wether futurity was also discussed but was put on hold for future discussion.

-Breed Standard Education: Deb Hopkins will contact Melanie Barkley to get a list of photos she needs to complete the manual. The board would like to get an electronic file of it to put up on the website and possibly get CD's of it made up for judges and breeders use. There were no new judges to approve for the certified judges list at this time.

-Newsletter/Webpage: Deb Hopkins reported that due to the lack of advertising support for the fall 2011 newsletter, an executive decision was made to go with a reduced version of the newsletter and to offer premium advertising spots to all of the four advertisers. It was a 16 page newsletter that provided all the important fall information and costs were cut so it only cost the CDC $545 to get produced and mailed out. Hopefully this was only a temporary situation though the fall newsletter has always been the less supported issue by advertisers. After discussion, Johnnie Johnson moved to make the fall issue of The Dorset Connection an online only issue. Jeff Poynter seconded. Motion carried. This issue will be emailed out to all members whose emails are on file with the CDC.

-Dorset Breeder Excellence Program: It was reported that the CDC is waiting for entries as the deadline is the end of the year.

-All-American Junior Show: Deb Hopkins reported that the 2012 All-American will be held in Des Moines, IA at the Iowa State Fairgrounds from July 6-8, 2012. Polled and Horned Dorsets will be included with slick shorn classes offered once again. The CDC is soliciting polled ewe lambs and a horned ewe lamb to be sold at spring sales to help support the Dorset Shows. Interested breeders please contact the CDC office or a CDC director. Deb will also have the juniors solicit class donors at the Ohio Dorset Sale & National Sale in Illinois and the raffle tickets will be mailed out again directly to Dorset breeders for their support. An organizational meeting was held at Louisville and we are looking for local area breeders for support and volunteering for activities at the show. Stacy Scramlin has been contacted to judge and a second judge with wool sheep judging capabilities is also being contracted. In 2013 the All-American Junior Show will be held in East Lansing, MI at MSU Livestock Pavilion. continued on page 12

FEATURE ARTICLES,cont.*-National Junior Dorset Association:

Deb Hopkins reported they had a good meeting and the meeting & pizza party was well attended in Louisville. The association awarded two $1000 College Scholarships to Sarah Bush, Blairstown, MO and Jacob Gankofskie, Clinton, ME. The Tracy Repasky Estate donated almost $27,000 to the scholarship program. It was moved at the meeting to re-name the Dorset scholarship to the "Tracy Repasky Memorial Dorset Scholarship". They voted to expand the scholarship program to award up to three $1000 each year. They also voted to look into the possibility of purchasing a Dorset Futurity ewe lamb up to $500 at the National Sale and give it away to a junior exhibitor. It was also voted to have a gift basket fundraiser every year at the National Sale for the National Junior Dorset Association to help fund their activities. The new 2011-2012 Officers are: President & North Central Director: Sarah Bush, MO; Vice President & Great Plains: Monica Ebert, KS; Sec/Treas. & Eastern Director: Troy Longenecker, PA; New England Director: Ashley Pinckney, NY; Great Lakes Director: Tyler Myers OH; Western Director: Johanna DeJoria, OR; Director At-Large: Michael Pope, IN

-Production Committee: Deb Hopkins reported that the office is trying to get breeders identified for the next breeder's directory on the type of Dorset they raise for the next printed breeders directory. The CDC is also trying to get the production data fields identified for the new re-designed registration papers.

-Dorset Youth Breeder Incentive Program: Casey Sidwell reported that the committee had some ideas: 1) ewe lamb giveaway or credit to buy a ewe lamb, or give a lamb to an existing 4-H or FFA group to get Dorsets into their breeding programs, could possibly work with the Junior Association on this and co-sponsor; 2) shifting the Dorset Breeder Excellence program to a junior focus; 3) have an essay contest to award buyers credits in each region, would require money generation. The committee will meet and present an idea at the next CDC board meeting.

-Dorset Hall Of Fame: Jeff Poynter and Johnnie Johnson presented a program proposal where people would be nominated and their names would remain in nomination even if not selected that year from that point forward, have 5-7 people inducted in the first year and then 2-3 people every year after, have the website develop a "Hall of Fame" page, recognize inductees at National Sale/Meeting each year with a recognition plaque, the board of directors would decide on inductees, only cost would be the cost of the recognition plaques. Nominations would need to be made by March 15th for presentation at the Illinois Sale this year. Deb could put together a nomination form, send out to board for approval and get up on web site and in next newsletter. After the proposal presentation and discussion, Johnnie Johnson moved to create the Hall of Fame for the Dorset Breed that will be listed on the CDC website and presentation will be made at National Sale/Meeting each year with 5 inductees the first year and 2 inductees every year after, and nominations will be made to the CDC board by nomination form. Hoop Peterson seconded. Motion carried.

-OLD BUSINESS:

-Registration Program Update: Deb Hopkins reported that she has met with Frank Tiffany and have put the new program onto a new laptop for Deb to try out for the next month. We are down to the fine tuning and Frank has suggested backing up the data on the cloud and external hard drives. The registration certificate needs to get re-designed for the production data fields then we should be set to implement.

-2012 New England & Great Lakes

Director Elections: Deb Hopkins reported that the committees were announced in the last newsletter, letters of direction were sent to the committee members and slates of nominees are due in the office by January 15th, so the balloting can take place during February.

-CDC Wether Show Sponsorship at Major Fairs: Jeff Poynter sent out a new statement to the major state fairs in his region and sent copies to the other directors for them to do also in their regions. The major change has been that the money will be awarded to the overall champion if it is a "registered" Dorset wether with papers prior to showing, preferably in the carcass show if the fair has one, second option would be the junior live wether show and third option live open wether show.

-NEW BUSINESS:*-2012 National Sale & Annual Meeting:

The National Sale for both polled and horned Dorsets will be at the Illinois Dorset Sale in Bloomington, IL on April 6-8, 2012. Jeff Poynter reported that the Illinois Dorset Association has met and has developed a schedule of events and has appointed members to carry out tasks. Ewephoric Dorsets is going to sponsor the Best Headed Awards once again. The sale will be on Saturday morning so people can get back home for Easter Sunday.

-NAILE National Dorset Shows: Mike Galleher reported that it was one of the better Dorset shows that has been there in recent years and congratulations to Ram & Ewe Farm on the Supreme Champion Ewe in the Open Show. Deb Hopkins reported that the show results were up on the CDC website and the pictures will be following. 2012 Judge Nominations were selected for the ballots as follows: Polled Dorsets: Dan Spilde, Mark Johnson, John Mrozinski (Big John); Horned Dorsets: Steve Taylor, Bob McCrumb, Craig Beckmeier. These names will be put on the ballots send out to NAILE exhibitors for preference ranking submitted to NAILE. The junior show went late once again on Sunday night though the breeding sheep showmanship on Friday afternoon was well participated in. Hopefully something can be done for the Sunday show.

Improving Newborn Lamb Survival

by Melanie Barkley, Extension Educator
Penn State University

Livestock market prices are the highest in history and I can't think of a better time to be more concerned about newborn lamb survival. Even if we are talking about only five lambs, at 75 pounds per lamb and at least $2.00 a pound market value, we are looking at an overall value of $750. This can be even more when we factor in the value of breeding stock. So, let's look at a few ways we can ensure that lambs survive past birth.

Nutrition plays a critical role in the survivability of lambs both prior to and during lambing. Sufficient nutrient levels are needed for fetal development. This includes growth of the lamb, fat reserves at birth, and vigor once that lamb is born. Nutrition also has an effect on the quality and quantity of colostrum and we all know the importance of lambs receiving colostrum as soon as possible after birth. Ewes should have adequate amounts of feed, feed that provides the correct amount of protein and energy, and a good mineral supplement to keep them healthy and allow them to produce healthy lambs that are adequate in size.

Early in a ewe's pregnancy, the lambs are very small and take up little room within the ewe. There is plenty of room for the rumen to expand as the ewe eats.

Pay close attention to body condition of ewes at lambing time. Thin ewes are likely to produce less milk and possibly lower quality colostrum than ewes in good body condition. They are also more likely to have lighter weight lambs, which in turn are less likely to survive than average weights. A good goal is for lambs to weigh 10 pounds at birth.

On the other hand, don't let ewes get too fat because then we start to see problems with pregnancy toxemia and even prolapse. There's only so much room inside that ewe for feed, fat and lambs! And, if that internal capacity is filled with lambs and fat, then the ewe feels full before she has eaten enough to meet her nutrient requirements.

Health care is also important throughout gestation. Observe ewes at least 10 minutes a day to identify any problems. Vaccinations, such as C, D

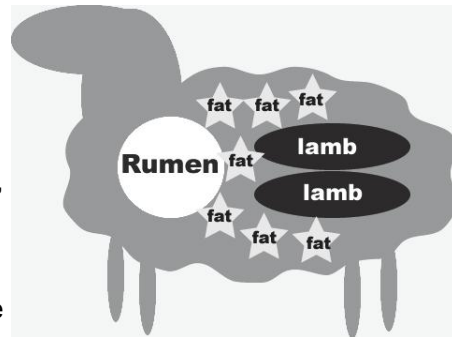

As the lambs begin to increase greatly in size during late pregnancy, there is less room for the rumen to expand as the ewe eats. Ewes in ideal body condition will have enough room internally to accommodate the growing size of the lambs as well as the rumen so that the ewe can eat enough to meet nutritional needs.

and T, given during the last month of pregnancy will also provide some protection to newborn lambs until their immune systems are developed enough to produce antibodies from their own vaccinations. If your flock has had problems in the past with any abortion diseases, make sure ewes are vaccinated. In some cases lambs may be born weak and die shortly after birth rather than being aborted at some point during the pregnancy.

Once the lambs are born we should pay attention to a few details. First and foremost is to make sure that the lambs are getting enough to eat. Typical lamb behavior is to stretch when they get up, ears should be alert and they should readily seek the udder. Lambs that cry, stand around hunched up, or simply don't get up most likely need more to eat. You can also pick up the lamb and check its belly for milk. Hold the lamb behind the front legs, with the back legs dangling. Feel the belly to see if it feels like an inflated balloon.

Dipping navels is a good way to protect from infection. This is more important when lambs are born inside as compared to lambs born outside on CLEAN pasture areas. Note my emphasis on clean! For lambs born in very cold weather, be sure to have some extra towels available to get them dried off more quickly. You may also want to have a heat source available to keep the lambs warm until they are dry. I prefer to use a heat lamp mounted inside a barrel, with a hole cut into the barrel for the lamb to walk in and out. Tie the barrel to a corner of the barn to prevent the ewe from knocking it over and starting a fire.

Body condition becomes more critical during late gestation when part of that room inside the ewe is taken up with fat. This is why ewes who are overly fat suffer from pregnancy toxemia. They simply don't have enough room internally to accommodate the growing size of the lambs, the space taken up by the fat and the space needed for the rumen when the ewe eats. Therefore, the ewe is not able to eat enough to account for the increased energy needs during the last part of her pregnancy.

A few minutes paying attention to these details can mean a big return in the number of lambs bouncing around your barnyard or pasture. Proper care can also bring returns in healthier sheep, meaning less time spent in the barn dealing with problems. Plus, proper care can also translate into heavier weaning weights for your lambs!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEW ENGLAND & GREAT LAKES DIRECTOR ELECTIONS

Just a reminder to all CDC lifetime members in the New England and Great Lakes Regions that you will be receiving voting ballots in February for your area's director. PLEASE make sure that you fill out these ballots and return to the CDC by the voting deadline. Thank-you in advance for your attention to this very important matter.

CDC RE-ESTABLISHES AMNESTY REGISTRATION PROGRAM for 2012

During 2012 the CDC will register animals over 2 years of age, as of the date of application, for a reduced rate of $3.50 for CDC members and $4.50 for non-members. This is a 50% savings! It has been a few years since the CDC has offered this program and will be doing so for the whole 2102 calendar year for breeders to catch up on sheep they have yet to register from their brood ewe flocks.

The CDC really encourages breeders to take advantage of this program because it really makes your life easier if all the producing sheep in your flock are registered for paperwork purposes. I know many feel it is a financial hardship to register the entire lamb crop each year and only do it on an as need basis so, here is your chance to take advantage of reduced rates and get caught up!

CDC ANNOUNCES THE "DORSET HALL OF FAME" RECOGNITION PROGRAM

The CDC Board of Directors created a "Dorset Hall of Fame Program" to recognize the many individuals that have helped to make the Dorset breed great. A nomination form has been established and is available at the CDC website: www.dorsets.homestead.com. Please take a minute to download, fill out and send in a form on one of the many deserving individuals in the Dorset breed, past and present.

The CDC would like to recognize The Dorset Hall of Fame's first class this year at the National Sale in Illinois. Nominations need to be into the CDC Office by March 15, 2012. People selected to the "Hall of Fame" will be recognized by the CDC with an appreciation plaque at the annual meeting and will be listed on the CDC website recognizing their contributions to the Dorset breed. Any person in the sheep industry may make nominations. Once a name is submitted it will remain nominated so no repeat nominations need to be made the following year.

The CDC is looking forward to inducting 5 individuals this year at Illinois and then 2 people for each year following. The Dorset breed has had many great individuals involved with it and it will be nice to recognize them for their dedication and accomplishments.

CHANGE IN IDENTIFICATION POLICY OF FUTURITY ANIMALS

The CDC will be discontinuing the tattooing of futurity ewe lambs. Instead the CDC will be using the flock and federal identification numbers of the animal for official identification. These ids will need to match up with that animals registration papers to be eligible at a show for points. If your animal loses a federal identification ear tag or flock tag and a replacement tag is put in then the CDC office will need to be notified immediately if there is a change in number before the showing of the animal in order for points to be counted.

Junior buyers will no longer need to get their animals tattooed before leaving the sales but both identification numbers will need to be reported to the CDC. Thus we strongly encourage breeders to put federal identification numbers on their registration papers so there is never a question on a futurity ewe's identification. We are also requesting sales managements, who need to keep a record of these id's anyways, to record them on futurity nominated ewe lambs and provide the CDC with the listing.

Thank-you in advance to all parties involved in keeping track of these ids on futurity ewes for the program. This should make the purchasing of ewe lambs easier for futurity participants and encourage continued involvement in this rewarding program.

ELDON MYERS

Eldon L. Myers, Industry, IL passed away on October 26, 2011 at the Elms Nursing Home in Macomb, IL. He was born Sept. 30, 1930 in Blandinsville, IL to Loren & Cora Woolam Myers. He married his wife June Spring on March 23, 1951 and is survived by her.

Eldon grew up on a farm near Blandinsville. He went to an elementary country school and graduated from Blandinsville High School where he was active in football, basketball and still holds records in track. He was also a leader as President of his class and FFA.

June and Eldon met as 4-Hers and began married life farming in the Macomb area. Due to medical complications he returned to college and received his undergraduate degree in agriculture and master's in education from the Univ. of Illinois. He taught in Northern Illinois for 40 years and retired from teaching at Kishwaukee College. In 2000, he returned to the Macomb area.

His passion was showing pure-bred sheep. Eldon & June established a fine flock of registered Polled Dorsets and in the past few years built an outstanding flock of Tunis. The family showed sheep for 45 years competing at numerous sheep shows and fairs throughout the Midwest. In 1992 he was honored by receiving the "DeKalb County Distinguished Service Award" for outstanding leadership with the youth in that area.

Memorial contributions maybe made towards an annual 4-H sheep showmanship award in honor of Eldon Myers.

DANIEL KORNGIEBEL

Daniel Korngiebel of Cuttingsville, VT passed away December 7, 2011 after battling a long time illness. "Danny", as he was known to his many sheep friends, was the owner of The Yarn Farm, and he was seen at many sheep events up and down the east coast selling his sheep supplies.

Danny was a great supporter of the youth in sheep industry by getting many kids started in 4-H raising sheep and supporting numerous sheep shows with awards. Dan was a breeder of many breeds of sheep including Dorsets. He was seen on the Northeast Fair circuit for many years showing his sheep, until his sheep supply business grew, which took the majority of his time in recent years.

The New England Sale was named in Dan's honor two years ago to recognize his continued support of that sale, equipment auction and the Northeast Youth Sheep Show, as well as the many other numerous sheep activities in New England including the open sheep shows at the BIG E where Dan showed his sheep for many years and was the supplier of sheep show supplies.

Dan will be sorely missed, especially in the New England Sheep family.

2012 ALL-AMERICAN JUNIOR SHOW BEING HELD IN DES MOINES, IOWA

The 2012 All-American Junior Sheep Show is going to be held at the Iowa State Fairgrounds in Des Moines, IA from July 6-8, 2012. # YOUTH NEWS

LETTER FROM JUNIOR DORSET ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT SARAH BUSH

Happy New Year,

The junior show at NAILE was very successful this past year. Congratulations to all of the winners, and to the futurity winners with their polled and horned ewes, hopefully the futurity program will continue to expand, including on the horned Dorset side. The junior meeting in Louisville was well attended I am excited about working with a great officer team for this up-coming year. The Tracy Repasky Trust gave a generous donation to the CDC Juniors so that we may fund another scholarship for our youth.

With lamb prices and wool prices being what they are, it is an excellent time for juniors to increase their flock size and become more involved with their sheep. The Ohio sale and then the Illinois Dorset sale are coming up and both of these shows will get a great place purchase your futurity ewes, as well as the Midwest Stud Ram sale in Sedalia in June.

It is never too early to start making plans for the junior shows this summer, I would like to invite you all to Missouri for the Midwest Preview Show in June, and then back to the mid-west for the All American Junior Show in Des Moines Iowa this year. If you have not had the chance to experience either one of these family oriented shows, I highly recommend them. At these shows you can bet that the junior Dorset members will be getting together to enjoy some food, fun, and great company.

I look forward to seeing you all at the upcoming events and to making this upcoming year a great one.

Sincerely, Sarah Bush

2012 REGIONAL JUNIOR SHOW SITES AND ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Following are the show sites for the upcoming 2011 regional junior shows:

*New England - Northeast Youth Sheep Show, West Springfield, MA July, 19th-22nd

*Eastern - Delaware Junior Livestock Expo., Harrington, DE Oct 13th-14th

*Great Lakes - Ohio State Fair, Columbus, OH August 1st

*North Central - Moultrie Douglas Fair, Arthur, IL July 14th

*Great Plains - Tulsa State Fair, Tulsa, OK September 30th

*Western - Oregon State Fair, Salem, OR August 25th

Entry and more details will be printed in the next newsletter but hopefully this will be enough information to start making your show season plans.

A junior member can show at more than one regional show per calendar year. Also, the upper age limit was changed a few years ago to where junior exhibitors 21 years old and under as of January 1st of the current year are eligible to show.

To avoid any confusion, following are the eligibility requirements for these shows as outlined by the CDC:

1) Exhibitor must be a current member of the CDC whether in the youth enrollment program or a lifetime member.

2) Exhibitor 21 years old and under as of January 1, 2012 is eligible. There is no lower age limit but the exhibitor must be able to lead and/or control the head of his/her animal in the show ring.

3) Exhibitor must be present to show their own animals unless physically impaired. The junior owner will need to be at the head of the animal controlling it in the show ring, unless of course they have more than one entry in a class in which case another junior exhibitor showing their second animal is acceptable.

4) Sheep must be registered in the youth's name. Youth partnerships are acceptable except for futurity animals which must be in the individual youth owner's name ONLY. Farm names or "family" ownerships are not acceptable.

5) Exhibitor can show at more than one regional junior dorset show per calendar year, the CDC strongly encourages juniors to at least show at the regional show in the region in which they reside

6) EWE FUTURITY PROGRAM: Your futurity ewe can earn double points at a regional junior show for the futurity ewe program, only the highest regional showing will be doubled, any others will count as a regular show.

Regional junior shows are sometimes held in conjunction with existing shows so there definitely may be other show specific rules and regulations that apply. Please be aware of these requirements when making out your entries.

The Continental Dorset Club supports youth sheep shows around the country by supplying over $8000 a year for awards and premiums. The CDC remains committed to the Dorset youth as the juniors of today are the future of the breed tomorrow. Good luck to all the Dorset youth in 2012!
